

South Scotland needs change

South Scotland has huge potential, but after 20 years of SNP government too many people feel they are being held back.

It's time for change.

Scottish Labour has a plan to fix the mess, get the basics right and build a better future for the South Scotland.

Making life more affordable

Scottish Labour will help people keep more of their own money in their pocket and keep everyday costs down by:

- ✔ Committing to no income tax rate rises for five years, with the ambition to lower taxes as we get the economy growing.
- ✔ Widening eligibility for energy-efficiency grants, so grants for rural homes are increased by £500 and 3,000 more older households can access funding for home upgrades.
- ✔ Introducing breakfast clubs in all primary schools, helping parents get to work on time and ensuring no child starts the day hungry.
- ✔ Cutting childcare costs for working parents with two weeks of summer holiday clubs and increasing the value of tax free childcare to £3,000 per child.
- ✔ Keeping down the cost of public transport, preventing a return to peak rail fares and maintaining free bus travel for under-22s and older people.
- ✔ Reducing tax for first time buyers, increasing the Land and Buildings Transaction Tax relief threshold to £200,000, saving first time buyers up to £1,100 off the cost of buying a home.
- ✔ Preventing above inflation hikes to water bills while Scottish Water generates multi-million pound surpluses.
- ✔ Improving access to banking hubs, working with the banking sector to help anyone who needs reliable access to cash and banking services.

An NHS there when Scots need it

Scottish Labour will always defend the NHS and we will make sure it is delivering for the people living in South Scotland by:

- ✔ Driving down NHS waiting lists, with funding following the patient so that anyone from South Scotland who is willing to travel can be offered treatment wherever capacity is available.
- ✔ Ending the 8am rush for a GP appointment and bringing back the family doctor so everyone can get a GP appointment within 48 hours when they need one.
- ✔ Launching an emergency mental health response service, so that people in mental health crisis get specialist NHS care, not merely a police response.
- ✔ Protecting services in underserved areas, working with GPs to secure provision in rural practices and incentivising newly qualified dentists to work in under-served areas.
- ✔ Delivering safe maternity services, with a national plan to ensure that women can access quality maternity care no matter where they live.
- ✔ Establishing a virtual hospital so patients can attend outpatient consultations and follow up appointments online, reducing the need to travel long distances to speak to a specialist.
- ✔ Catching cancer earlier with modernised screening and investment in new AI-enabled scanners so that waiting times targets are finally met.
- ✔ Cracking down on poorly run care homes, prioritising more regular inspections and improving transparency for residents and their families so quality services are easier to identify.
- ✔ Ending the patchwork provision of palliative care, working with the profession to improve clinical pathways and minimum standards of care for those at the end of life.

South Scotland needs change

Kickstarting the economy

A Scottish Labour government will unlock the huge economic potential of the South Scotland by:

- ✔ Prioritising rural-specific industries within our industrial strategy, ensuring that government interventions are designed for both rural and urban areas from inception.

- ✔ Prioritising business scale-up in government funding, shifting enterprise support towards loans focused on delivering growth and improving business productivity.

Homes for all

As part of Scottish Labour's plans to build 125,000 homes and end the housing emergency, in South Scotland we will:

South Scotland needs change

This election is a straight choice between more of the same with the SNP or a government ready to build a better future with Scottish Labour.

The SNP has had 20 years in charge; they don't deserve another five.

On May 7, vote Scottish Labour on both votes for the change Scotland needs.
